

Amy B. Mansue, President and CEO, Inspira Health

Amy B. Mansue was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of Inspira Health in August 2020. She has dedicated nearly three decades of service to the health care industry, and has made a significant impact across the state, having worked both in politics and for leading hospitals in New Jersey. In recognition of her expertise, Mansue was appointed Regional Coordinator in Central New Jersey by Governor Murphy amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

Prior to her role at Inspira, Mansue served as Executive Vice President and Chief Experience Officer at RWJBarnabas Health. She was also the former Chief Executive Officer of Children's Specialized Hospital and the board chair for both the New Jersey Hospital Association and the New Jersey Chamber of Commerce. Mansue earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in social welfare from The University of Alabama.

Amy has received many distinguished awards and honors from business organizations as well as non-profit agencies for her dedication to improving health care and creating economic development opportunities. Honors include: Salute to the Policy Makers Award from the Executive Women of New Jersey; Humanitarian Award from the American Conference of Diversity – NJ Chapter; Institute for Nursing 2003 EPIC Award; Junior Achievement Hall of Fame; NJBIZ Health Care Power list; Modern Healthcare 1998 Up and Coming Health Care Executive; The Marquees 2020 Corporate Citizen of the Year Award; 2021 Arc Gloucester County Honoree; 2021 Enterprising Women in Commerce Award; 2021 Excellence in Community Leadership Award – Hughes Center for Public Policy; Rowan College Foundation and Rowan College of South Jersey 2022 Person of the Year; PRAC of Southern New Jersey 2022 Human Services Award; and the 2021 and 2022 South Jersey BIZ Power list.
